TONE 7

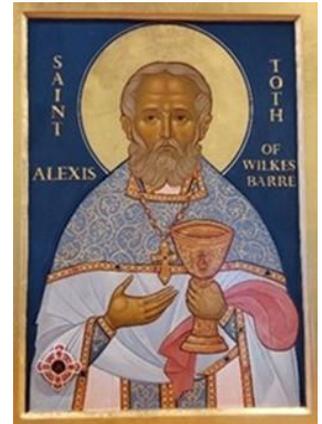

Third Sunday of Great Lent

Veneration of the Cross

“The Orthodox Christian Church is evangelical, but not Protestant. It is orthodox, but not Jewish. It is catholic, but not Roman. It is not denominational, it is pre-denominational. It has believed, taught, preserved, defended, and died for the Faith of the Apostles since the Day of Pentecost nearly 2,000 years ago.”

– Our Life in Christ

Welcome to our Guests!

Thank you for coming to pray with us. You will find a weekly bulletin with today's hymns and a blue guest information card on the back table. Please fill out the card and give it to a greeter or put it in an offering box. You are also invited to Coffee Fellowship in the parish hall following the Liturgy this morning. Our priest, Fr David, looks forward to meeting you!

According to ancient Christian practice, Holy Communion (Eucharist) is served to members of the Orthodox Church who have made preparation through prayer, fasting, and recent confession, and who are at peace with their neighbor. If you are not a member of the Orthodox Church, you may be offered blessed bread (antidoron) by others in respect and love.

Greeter Schedule:

Mar 15	Mar 22	Mar 29	April 5	April 12
Kenadea N	Michael P	Chris M	Olga L	Octavian F

Third Sunday of Great and Holy Lent: Veneration of the Precious Cross

In the middle of Lent, the Church sets before us the Cross of Christ. On two other occasions during the year (9/14 and 8/1) the Cross is presented, linked to historical events. However, this event today speaks only to our faith and reverence. It is to proclaim the part played by the Cross in the history of our salvation as Christians, and to prepare us for Great and Holy Friday, when we will again fall down before our crucified Lord and witness His passion, all the while anticipating His Resurrection. His cross is your cross today. The Lord is able to transform your cross into a symbol of victory by His suffering freely born out of love for you. May your cross be transfigured as you venerate it today!

It's All Hands on Deck! Please save the following Saturdays @10-3 for working in our new building:

- March 14 – be sure to read all the way to the end of the email that went out with the bulletin!
- March 21 – watch for details

Regardless of how long you can stay, come anyway and help as you can! Team leaders will assign tasks and provide materials. All are welcome, including well-supervised children with their parents!

Practical Application of General Guidelines About Fasting

For our healing we need to practice the spirit of the fast. We are not monastics, and we must function successfully in the workplace and in our homes for our families. A practical, suggested application is as follows:

1. No meat until Pascha.
2. Reduce/eliminate dairy products to the best of your ability.
3. According to the rubrics, a (modest-sized) glass of wine is permissible with the main course of our main meal of the day on feast days, Saturday, and Sunday (for those who do not need to abstain from alcohol completely).
4. Make your best fasting efforts on Wednesdays and Fridays, the first week of Lent (Clean Week) and Holy Week.
5. Limit meals and eat less. Stuffing ourselves on “legal” foods is still gluttony. Stop eating before you are full. Exercising, walking, running, and drinking plenty of water can help control gluttony. Moderation is a Christian discipline. Also, besides the overeating of “legal” delicacies, abstain from gluttony of the tongue by speaking less, listening more.
6. If we are fasting appropriately, we will experience weakness from time to time. If you are under care of a physician and taking prescribed medication, follow the directions if food and water are required! This is part of your fasting. You do not need to ask your priest for a blessing to modify fasting in this case.
7. Fast from social media and screentime as much as your work or studies allow.
8. The Great Fast is a gift. It is not done as a lone individual. It is done in the fellowship of the entire Body of Christ. Let us prayerfully offer our fast up to God in thanksgiving for all He has given us.
9. Take the fast seriously. With the services coming up, mark your calendar and attend as many as possible, bowing down to God in worship and enjoying His presence. Lent is a slow cook, not a microwave zap! There is nothing instantaneous in spiritual growth.
10. A custom for some is to give alms to those in need with the monies saved by fasting in addition to their regular tithes. We have a separate Alms Box for receiving such offerings.

Essential Orthodox Christian Beliefs

Fr David is now facilitating a class for seekers, catechumens, and members of the faithful after Coffee Fellowship Hour on appointed Sundays - check the calendar for dates! Catechumens, please make it a priority to attend – and all others are welcome to join in. In the Orthodox Church we pray what we believe and we believe what we pray. If you are a guest, seeker, inquirer or member, this is an opportunity to learn more about the meaning behind how we pray. So, enjoy Coffee Hour then join us back in the nave.

Capital Campaign 2025-2026 In Progress

- ✓ The goal of $400K has been reached, enabling us to pay for the new building. Thanks be to God!
- ✓ But don't stop now! From this time forward all donations received for the Building Fund will be used for renovations, icons, and the many other items needed for us to occupy and worship together. All pledges for the campaign are due by St. Thomas Sunday, April 19, 2026.
- ✓ Make sure any donation intended for the Building Fund is clearly marked with “Building Fund” written on your offering envelope and/or check.

- Can you push a light-weight stick vacuum? We need volunteers to vacuum 1) the nave by noon each Sunday, and 2) the parish hall & kitchen after Coffee Fellowship Hour!
- Woodworkers, carpenters, and other skilled craftsmen needed! In preparation for having our own building, there are projects waiting to be completed. If you have tools and expertise, your services will be greatly appreciated. Do you know someone with these skills? Send info to Fr David.

O Righteous Father Alexis, pray to God for us!

Prayer for the new home for St. Alexis (Augmented Litany):

Again we ask Thee to continue to grant us wisdom, understanding, and discernment as we prepare to move into our new church building. We thank Thee for Thy provision and ask that Thou wouldst grant us great love and compassion for one another and the ability to inquire respectfully, listen carefully, act judiciously, and proceed graciously. Lead us in the way of Thy Truth for the glory of Thy Kingdom as we continue becoming Thy disciples and participate in making disciples, for the salvation of our children, our neighbors, and all people.

Hymns for this Sunday: Please sing along with the choir – and all week long!

Tone 7 Troparion (Resurrection)

By Thy Cross Thou didst destroy death.
To the thief Thou didst open Paradise.
For the Myrrhbearers Thou didst change weeping into joy,
and Thou didst command Thy disciples, O Christ God,
to proclaim that Thou art risen,//
granting the world great mercy.

Tone 1 Troparion (Cross)

O Lord, save Thy people,
and bless Thine inheritance!
Grant victories to the Orthodox Christians
over their adversaries;
and by virtue of Thy Cross,// preserve Thy habitation!

*Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit
Now and ever and unto ages of ages. Amen*

Tone 7 Kontakion (Cross)

Now the flaming sword no longer guards the gates of Eden;
it has been mysteriously quenched by the wood of the Cross.
The sting of death and the victory of hell have been vanquished;
for Thou, O my Savior, hast come and cried to those in hell://
“Enter again into Paradise!”

Scripture Readings for this Sunday:

Epistle: Hebrews 4:14-5:6

Gospel: Mark 8:34-9:1

The Lord's Prayer

English

Our Father, Who art in heaven,
Hallowed be Thy name.
Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors;
And lead us not into temptation,
But deliver us from the evil one.

Spanish

Padre nuestro, que estás en los cielos,
Santificado sea tu nombre.
Venga tu Reino.
Hágase tu voluntad así en la tierra como en el cielo.
El pan nuestro de cada día dánosle hoy,
Y perdona nuestras deudas, así como nosotros perdonamos nuestros deudores;
Y no nos dejes caer en la tentación, mas líbranos del mal.
